

Japanese Trade Leaders Visit Canada

THE Japanese Mission, which recently arrived at Vancouver on board the Canadian Pacific steamer "Shimosa" of Australia, will cross Canada to the C. P. R. on their way to New York, where they are to attend an international silk conference. Reading the names of the delegation, Mr. Katsuji Nakamura, President of the Japanese Raw Silk Company; Kino Nishitani, President of the Tottori Associated Raw Silk Company; M. Miyasaki, Japanese secretary and manager, interpreter; Yoshiro Sasaki, M. P., and Mr. Tetsuo Yamada, interpreter.

Speaking to a reporter, Mr. Miyasaki said: "Japan is slowly changing, she is assuming new habits and the people living in the cities have her way of production. Japan has taken hold of us. And as a result, you understand, are going to have difficulties with us. But we did during the beginning and the middle of the last century. Industrialism is multiplying our population."

He added that Japan, in the proper way, would be a good customer for Canadian goods and speaking of the trade conditions in his country, he said: "We have been very fortunate. We had cleared the financial atmosphere, trade would once more take great strides forward." He added: "We are now buying a lot of lumber from you, and it is certain we will want more, much more. Your lumber has such a beautiful grain, and you know, we don't paint our houses in the interior."

EXPLOSION WRECKS DUBLIN PRINT OFFICE

DUBLIN, Feb. 11.—Almost simultaneously with the issue of a proclamation from the "Republican army" to the people of Dublin, Ireland, calling upon the "army" to continue its activities against the British, the city was taken by a terrific explosion in the printing works of Patrick MacCormac, a Free State government printer, who printed the posters of fitting anniversary.

Oyster Stew

This little sun-baked of an oyster found a whisky bottle in the bottom of Chesapeake Bay, crawled up the neck of the bottle, and then proceeded to grow into a perfect stopper. It was found by Captain H. C. Smith and is now the财产 of a Baltimore saloon.

Heavy Guards at Banks

On their arrival heavy guards were posted by the French at all street corners and near all important business houses in Eisenach. Much evidence of the mailed fist that confronted the German population at every turn.

Used After Shaving Keeps Skin Soft and Smooth

Many men suffer from irritation of the skin as a result of shaving. With some it assumes a form of eczema and becomes most annoying and unsightly. By applying a little of Dr. Chase's Ointment after shaving the irritation is overcome and Barber's Ich and Eczema are prevented or relieved.

WOMAN SHOT ON FARM SOUTH OF STRATHCONA

Said to Have Been Carrying Gun, Which Was Acciden- tally Discharged

Mr. W. Rogers, occupant of a farm situated about two and a half miles south of Strathcona, was admitted to the Royal Alexandra hospital, Saturday night, suffering from a gunshot wound in the chest. The bullet had entered just above the heart, penetrates the left lung, and passed through the body. It is believed the shooting was accidental.

According to his own story, Mr. Rogers was carrying a high-power .32 rifle just outside the farmhouse on Saturday evening, when she trips and fell, discharging the gun. A twelve-year-old boy who was working on the farm heard the alarm and Howells, a Mountie, and Dr. Morton Hall of Edmonton, were summoned to the scene.

The injured woman was carried nearly half a mile to the main road and then brought to the city.

It was learned from the police that the information that she was doing well considering the nature of the wound, and that no operation is to be held when it is believed to ascertain the extent of the injury.

It is understood that the woman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wimbleton in England. She was born in Strathcona and periodically goes out to the city to visit the place where the accident occurred.

E.S. CONCERT HIGH QUALITY OF EXCELLENCE

Henry Baron Conducts One of Season's Best Concerts— R. L. Bateman, Soloist

Another successful concert was given at its already lengthy list when Edward Steiner, conductor, presented a series of programs in the New Season's series of concerts in the New Empire Theatre. Despite the forbidding name of the hall, the audience was on hand to partake of the delicious musical feast prepared and served.

It is doubtful if any of the programs given this season have proven as popular as the one presented by the master of ceremonies. The pieces were representative works of master musicians, and all had the divine quality of being easily digestible and favorably to the world at large.

It was the intent of the conductor that there was to be no break between the various pieces of the concert.

There was, however, which proved to be a decided hindrance to the enjoyment of the music.

The intermission was a decided hindrance to the enjoyment of the music. The second half of the program was entirely spent in silence. These two reasons alone might well have made the entire concert a failure.

Henry Baron conducted.

First Rosedale—This morning I saw a man in a suit and tie in New York. He was a criminal. I know his name is Rosedale. —Yes, and I know just the address they mean.
Proof Positive.
"I look like that picture things are awful squat and the look or a police fighter. Now answer me." "Do you call that a good likeness?"
The photograph sounds the pit of the stomach.
"The answer," he said, "is in the negative."
